SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES FOR ISIT 2027

On behalf of the IEEE Information Theory Society and the ISIT Organizing Committee, we invite you to participate as a sponsor for the 2027 IEEE International Symposium on Information Theory (ISIT 2027), which will take place in Sorrento, Italy, in June 2027. Your sponsorship will support professional technical exchange and showcase your organization to over 1,000 researchers, practitioners, and students, working in information theory, communications, quantum information processing, signal processing, machine learning, and related fields. ISIT is a premier international conference series dedicated to the advancement of information theory, and its applications to the broad range of technology domains, and related areas. It brings together an international community of researchers and practitioners each year to present and discuss new research results and perspectives on future developments relevant to all areas of information theory, including

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--|
| » Source and channel coding | » Digital assets and smart contracts |
| » Communication theory and systems | » Signal processing |
| » Optical communication | » Quantum communication and computing |
| » Security and privacy | » Big data analytics |
| » Vehicular communication | » Statistical and deep learning |
| » Wireless networking and 6G | » Cryptography (including post-quantum cryptography) |
| » Network coding | » Other emerging technologies |

ISIT is known for attracting the top students, professors, researchers, and practitioners to one of the world's most comprehensive technical symposiums focused on theory and applications of Information Theory. We are committed to delivering a high-quality technical program, coupled with technology demonstrations, networking, social events, and recruitment opportunities.

We have introduced new and innovative opportunities for sponsors to engage and network with the leaders and brightest academics within the sector and learn about their most recent research. For companies interested in attracting students and postdocs for employment or internships, ISIT will facilitate information sessions and help with recruitment efforts.

Sponsorship funds will provide direct support to the mission of ISIT and will be used in part to enrich the program, facilitate closer interactions between industry and academia, and enhance the services and quality of events.

We welcome your sponsorship of ISIT and are excited about the opportunity to work with you. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have questions or need any additional information.

THE FUTURE RESEARCH CONSORTIUM

Making young researchers interact with both industry and academic experts is an important issue to address at a conference. However, young colleagues are often shy or intimidated and they miss the opportunity to discuss their ideas with people who know how to move in the research field. The FRC represents a structured moment of discussion reserved to young people and a group of selected experts who spend a time discussing ongoing PhD projects and ideas.

- » Meeting with selected PhD Students
- » Discussion with industry experts
- » Moderation by qualified professionals
- » Networking and collaboration opportunities
- » Fresh ideas investigated by young people from all over the world

THE RESEARCH CAREER PANEL

When close to the end of their PhD, young researchers may be looking for a future perspective even outside academia. Interacting with people coming from an industrial background that invests in research and development provides a wider horizon for these people and helps them orient themselves to build their future. During the RCP, companies can showcase their products and activities to attract newly formed talents and stay at the forefront of innovation.

- » Focus on current topics and opportunities
- » Meeting between industry and academia
- » Product presentation
- » Future career development
- » An opportunity to meet research talents nearing the end of their PhD
